

Client: Headline Print
 Source: Woman's Own Magazine
 Date: 19/09/2022
 Page: 86
 Reach: 185172
 Value: 32135.2900

Woman's Own
Book CLUB
 Take some time out to relax with one of these great reads...

MY DARLING DAUGHTER
 by JP Delaney (£14.99, HB, Quercus)
 Fifteen years ago, Susie made the hardest decision of her life: to give up her newborn daughter for adoption. Now happily married to Gabe, she lives in a beautiful farmhouse and has a successful singing career. Having been unable to conceive again, the 35-year-old is delighted when her daughter Anna unexpectedly gets in touch via social media. But their joyful reunion is clouded by Anna's concerning descriptions of her home life. Certain that there are dark secrets at play, Susie begins to fear for her daughter's welfare. After all these years, the ugly truth is about to be exposed...
 A twisty, electrifying read.

WORDS: ANNABEL KEMP

THE DAUGHTER OF AUSCHWITZ
 by Tova Friedman and Malcolm Brabant (£20, HB, Quercus)
 Tova Friedman is one of the youngest people to survive the Holocaust. In this vivid account, her harrowing memories are brought to life with meticulous research from war reporter Malcolm Brabant. The result is a poignant, extraordinarily powerful book.

Client: Headline Print
Source: Woman's Own Magazine
Date: 19/09/2022
Page: 86
Reach: 185172
Value: 32135.2900

---

THE HIDDEN PALACE

by Dinah Jefferies
(£8.99, PB, HarperCollins)

You can be anyone you like in the winding alleys and bohemian clubs of Malta. Fleeing Paris in 1925, Rosalie Delacroix finds refuge and work as a dancer on this tiny island. But beyond the delightful food, honey-toned architecture and abundant charm of Malta, sinister secrets lurk in shadowy streets. Years later, in 1944, Florence Baudin arrives on the island in search of her aunt Rosalie, who has been missing for years. With only a crumpled letter to guide her, and the chaos of war thwarting her efforts, can Florence track down her family before it's too late? A richly atmospheric tale of grief, determination and hope.

TALE OF HOPE

Client: Headline Print
Source: Woman's Own Magazine
Date: 19/09/2022
Page: 86
Reach: 185172
Value: 32135.2900

---

DID YOU MISS?

THE LAST HOURS IN PARIS
by Ruth Druart
(£16.99, HB, Headline)
In Paris, 1944, Elise Chevalier is consumed with hatred for the German army that killed her fiance, but must mask her rage. Meanwhile, Sebastian Kleinhaus is seeking salvation from the war he despises. In Brittany, 1963, Josephine Chevalier is searching for a suitcase under the bed and unexpectedly unearths her mother's long-buried secret, one of forbidden love and unimaginable betrayal.

WHEN THINGS ARE ALIVE THEY HUM

by Hannah Bent (£8.99, PB, Ultimo Press)

Having lost their mother, sisters Marlowe and Harper share a powerful bond. Endlessly fascinated by the world, Harper lives with a congenital heart disorder and what she calls Up syndrome. When she finds love, her happiness is complete – until her failing heart forces both sisters to confront impossible circumstances.